Blog Review 447 [1]

We don't always make fun of Polly Toynbee around here but this is too good to not mention: the lump of indignation fallacy [3] . This is good too [4] .

On iron fertilisation of the oceans as a way of sequestering CO2: might we in fact already have done the experiment? The iron contained in coal burnt [5] by all those ships a century ago?

Perhaps adapatation to a low carbon economy [6] won't be all that difficult (given enough time)?

Iain Dale's decided to, umm, well, you've got to admit it's a pretty neat idea [7] , don't you?

The Victorian principles of policing [8] : Netsmith didn't recognise any of them in the modern forces but perhaps you can do better?

So just how well paid are public sector chief executives? As compared with private sector ones [9] ?

And finally, those who speak Spanish might like to go here [10] , those who don't, read this [11] .

> Venezuelan Interior Minister Pedro Carreno was momentarily at a loss for words when a journalist interrupted his speech and asked if it was not contradictory to criticize capitalism while wearing Gucci shoes and a tie made by Parisian luxury goods maker Louis Vuitton.

Snigger.
