IHS academic writing competition [1]

Written by Dr Madsen Pirie [2] | Wednesday 12 December 2007

The Institute for Humane Studies has launched an essay contest for full-time undergraduate and graduate students. The deadline for submissions is January 31st 2008.

Essays must be a maximum of 2,500 words on any topic that addresses "the conditions essential for prosperity, progress and human flourishing." The prizes are as follows:

First place: $1,000

Second place: $500

Third place: $250

There are separate awards for graduates and undergraduates, and the total prize money will be $4,000. Details at www.TheIHS.org/essays [3].
